As I finished each book, I composed a short review of it, as follows: The Dark Tide, the first book in Dennis L McKiernan's Iron Tower trilogy is a diverting and entertaining novel. It is filled with standard fantasy elements---a long-dormant evil power in the north awakens to threaten and overwhelm the good and free peoples in the south---and is somewhat This is actually a 3-1/2 star rating.

In comparison to The Dark Tide, Shadows of Doom, and The Darkest Day, Shannara is a veritable bastion of originality sprung whole and entire from the forehead of Zeus. The Iron Tower Trilogy is, in fact, The Lord of the Rings with the serial numbers filed off. Crudely. Anyone who possesses even a passing familiarity with Tolkien's masterwork ...
