Well, it is indeed a jungle out there, but the lion we need to worry about never sleeps. King David called upon the Lord seeking His protection from the wicked who oppress him. David compares his deadly enemies to a young lion, eager to tear its prey; a young lion, lurking in secret places.

The Power of His Word: The Lion Never Sleeps

A lion, being superior to a sheep and knowing their superiority, it can safely and confidently disregard the opinion of sheep. Even if the sheep argued that lions are fearsome, vicious, and heartless—it's really of little consequence. It's these characteristics that make the lion king of the jungle. The lion bows to no animal.
