Treasure Island: A Young Reader's Edition Of The Classic ...

This was the review I wrote last year for the Robert Louis Stevenson classic, "Treasure Island": Mutiny! Mayhem! Adventure! Stevenson's classic has defined fictional pirate culture -- 'X' marks the spot, peg-legged pirates, treasure maps, talking parrots, and plenty o' rum (and wine and brandy, too) -- and has given us such memorable characters as Long John Silver, the treacherous corsair.

Treasure Island by Nancy Fletcher-Blume

When young Jim Hawkins sets sail in search of treasure and adventure, he finds himself caught up in a mutiny. If he's to get home alive, he must outwit the ruthless pirate Long John Silver. This retelling of Robert Louis Stevenson's classic adventure story is part of the popular Usborne Young Reading series, ideal for newly independent readers.
